GREETINGS FROM FR. DAVE

This is the weekend we do the “ask” to support the Archdiocese of Portland. As I remind you each year, Holy Trinity is not a “stand-alone,” independent parish, but by its very nature is connected to the Archdiocese and through the Archdiocese to the universal Church. The annual Archbishop’s Catholic Appeal funds the ministries that are beyond the scope of Holy Trinity: training for priests and deacons, campus ministry, prison ministry, outreach to the marginalized, retirement for clergy, and the support of the specific ministries and offices of the Archdiocese. Our parish is asked to raise $130,000. We have always met our goal in previous years and our success has not been relying on a few big hitters, but our encouragement for all of our families to do something, as they are able. Please respond promptly with a pledge or donation using the provided envelopes or by going online to advance.archdpdx.org/aca (please select “Holy Trinity - Beaverton” from the drop-down menu of parishes when completing the online form). Thanks!

Lent is the next biggie, beginning with Ash Wednesday this week on March 2nd. Masses will be at 8:15am, 2:15pm (with school), and 7:00pm. Ashes will be distributed at each. We are not livestreaming these Masses because there is no “virtual” way of receiving ashes. As with so much of our Catholic faith — touch, smell, taste, community — are by their very nature “in-person.” As COVID cases diminish I continue to welcome, encourage, and invite those of you who have been away to return. Obviously for some this is not prudent so please don’t layer on guilt! And for some of you, Lent is a perfect time to return.

The Synod process is continuing here at Holy Trinity and throughout the world. We have had many of our ministry groups complete the process and our big parish opportunity is coming up on Saturday, March 12th from 9:00-11:00am in the church. We will join for prayer followed by listening sessions, seeking to hear carefully what the Holy Spirit is prompting. I encourage you to take time to prayerfully consider these two questions. Later in March we will offer the opportunity for individuals who did not participate in any of our group sessions to submit their responses. Come Holy Spirit!

- 1. What inspires you most about being a Catholic Christian, and how can we better put that forward in today’s world?
- 2. In what ways does it appear that the Catholic Church is hindering people from experiencing the love of Jesus, and how can we be addressing these obstacles?

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Blessings to Malia Zamora Lopez, who was baptized this weekend!

Congratulations to Cristina Lastimoso and Rhys Lendio, who were married here on February 26th. Blessings to you both, and to all of our married and engaged couples!

Funeral services are scheduled for Mika Jeschke-Ota on February 28th at 11:00am, and for Ron White, Sr. on March 5th at 11:00am. God bless them and their families.

BRETT'S TWO CENTS

Hello, everyone! Over the past couple weeks, I've received several questions about the priest down in Arizona who's been baptizing folks for decades now using the words, "We baptize you in the name of the Father..." instead of the traditional "I baptize you in the name...". As a result, the local bishop has expressed concern that all of these baptisms may be invalid (in his words, they are "doubtfully valid"). The questions I've received express concern over the light in which this puts the Church; isn't this just an instance of the Church being beholden to rules at the expense of the pastoral care of her people?

I understand and sympathize with the concern, but there is something more to this than just legalism. At the very heart of our Catholic sacramental system is the conviction that when we receive a Sacrament, we are encountering Jesus himself. The sacraments aren't just reminders or symbols of what the Lord is doing on a spiritual level; they're efficacious, i.e., they make present what they symbolize.

So, for example, Confession isn't just a reminder that the Lord forgives us; in this sacrament, when the priest prays, "I absolve you of your sins..." it is an actual encounter with Jesus himself, extending his mercy to us through the person of the priest. Likewise, the Eucharist is not just a symbol, but the actual crucified and risen Lord whom we receive under the form of bread and wine.

In the case of baptism, it's not just a welcoming ceremony or blessing. In this sacrament, the Lord Himself, acting through the person of the minister of baptism, takes us to Himself and incorporates us into his very own Body. He comes to dwell in our hearts and begins to regenerate within us what has been left wounded and dead by sin.

In the case of the Arizona priest, I presume that when he used the word "we" instead of "I," he was attempting to be inclusive of the church community. However, it's not the church community that baptizes, but Jesus himself, acting through the person of the priest. Hence the Church's ancient insistence that the words "I baptize you" be used; at that moment, the priest/minister is acting in persona Christi, "in the person of Christ."

So, does that make all of this priest's baptisms invalid? Well, at least on the objective level, it makes them doubtful, as the bishop indicated. Still, it's good to remember that while the sacraments are normative for us (they're the normal way we receive the grace of God), they don't limit God. Can God still give His grace, even if the wrong sacramental formula is used? God can do anything He wants. I'm sure in His mercy and compassion, He's done whatever is best for the spiritual well-being of His children who received this possibly invalid sacrament in good faith.

LENTEN RESOURCES & OPPORTUNITIES

- ✠ Magnificat Lenten Companion. If you haven't already, be sure to pick up a copy of The Magnificat Lenten Companion this weekend! Please take one copy per family at this time. Thank you!
- ✠ CRS Rice Bowl. CRS Rice Bowl is Catholic Relief Services' Lenten faith-in-action program. It offers opportunities for your family to engage daily with the spiritual pillars of Lent: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. We'll have a limited number of rice bowls available in the narthex on Ash Wednesday, but you can also make your own or donate online! Visit h-t.org/lent#ricebowl for resources, activities, and the donation form.
- ✠ Supper & Stations. Each Friday during Lent, different parish groups will provide a simple soup supper with bread/crackers (though the gesture is appreciated, please do not bring additional bread or goodies to share!) and lead us in Stations of the Cross. Supper starts at 6:00pm in Fireside; Stations start at 7:00pm in the church.
- ✠ Weekly Email Series. Send an email to parishioner Betty Arrigotti (MA in Counseling, certificate in Spiritual Direction) at betty@arrigotti.com to sign up for her Lenten email series (going on its 15th year!). This year, she will reprise some of her favorite advice from professionals on a variety of family and relationship topics.

Next year's Confirmation program will begin in October (for youth) and next January (for adults). Be sure to check the bulletin and website each week during the summer and fall for sign-up information.

FOR WHAT IT'S WORTH: THOUGHTS ON FAITH

Erin Nieves – erin@h-t.org

Guess what this Wednesday is? Lent, the start of something new! On Wednesday, our Church will suddenly have a purple vibe. Our 'Glorias' and 'Alleluias' will be packed away, and we will be called to repent, to do something new. "Even now, says the Lord, return to me with your whole heart, with fasting, and weeping, and mourning. Rend y our hears, not your garments, and return to the Lord, your God."

Aren't we ready to turn back, to try again, to START OVER? BEGIN A PUBLIC FAST! Show everyone. We wear ashes on our foreheads, we abstain from meat, fast in between meals. It feels good to be hungry, wear ashes for all the ways we have fallen short of what God calls us to be, to mark the 40 days ahead.

"Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation." And then we do what Jesus asks us to do (Mt 6:1-6, 16-18): FAST, PRAY, and GIVE ALMS, but in secret. "And the Father who sees in secret will repay you."

What we start in Public, we finish in Private, knowing that we are joined in solidarity by our fellow Catholics around the world.

"If today you hear His voice, harden not your hearts." May we all keep a prayerful and powerful Lent! Amen +

MINISTRY NEWS

SOCIAL JUSTICE MINISTRY

Eileen Sleva – 503.713.7939 – eileen.sleva@gmail.com

“In Lent, may we be increasingly concerned with ‘speaking words of comfort, strength, consolation and encouragement, and not words that demean, sadden, anger or show scorn’ (Fratelli Tutti, 223). In order to give hope to others, it is sometimes enough simply to be kind, to be ‘willing to set everything else aside in order to show interest, to give the gift of a smile, to speak a word of encouragement, to listen amid general indifference’ (ibid., 224).”

– Pope Francis, Message for Lent 2021

Our Lenten reflection series will be based on the Maryknoll Office for Global Concerns’ Lenten Reflection Guide for 2022, which focuses on the theme of Upholding Human Dignity and Human Rights. You can download the full guide online at h-t.org/lent, and learn more about the history of Maryknoll at maryknollogc.org/about.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Jerry Maurseth – vjmaurseth@gmail.com

Oregon Right to Life (ORTL) invites students ages 16–21 to sign-up now for their 2022 Launch retreat! Launch is a pro-life leadership retreat where students learn that there are practical ways they can live a pro-life lifestyle; they don’t have to be a “professional” pro-life advocate to save lives. Though Launch deals with abortion, assisted suicide, and other serious life issues, the retreat is fun, educational, and inspirational for everyone who attends. Launch is designed to train and encourage advocates to help defend the unborn and the vulnerable in whatever they choose to do with their lives. Their goal is for every pro-life student to become a leader for life in their community. Launch 2022 will be held at the Macleay Retreat Center in Salem from March 20–23. The $200 registration fee covers all lodging, meals, and materials; scholarships are available as needed. The deadline to apply has been extended to Friday, March 11th. To register and learn more, visit ortl.org/launch.

FOOD CLOSET MINISTRY

Michelle Dieter – 503.641.1842 – michelle@h-t.org

HOLY TRINITY FOOD CLOSET IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY PROVIDER.

NUMBER OF PEOPLE SERVED

Food Closet		Backpack Program
Last Week	316	Last Week	81
Since January 1 st	2,552	School Year	1,970

Every-other week, we have a client come through who is on a very restricted diet. She requests dried black beans, dried lentils, and brown rice. Most occasions we are able to fulfill the order, but last week we did not have what she needed. At the same time this client was here and being told we didn’t have the items she needed, a car happened to pull up with a donation – which included dried black beans, dried lentils, and brown rice. The joy and relief on our client’s face was beyond words. We don’t often get to see such a profound demonstration of God providing what someone needs, but on this day we did and it was amazing!

Speaking of needs, our Backpack Program continues to grow and we currently need at least 60 more actual backpacks (nothing fancy, just your standard backpack is perfect). Thank you all!

INFORMATION DESK

Marilyn Palma – marilynpalma@comcast.net

Attention all friendly individuals who enjoy helping others! Our Information Desk is in need of volunteers at each of our three Sunday morning Masses, especially at 11:15am. The Info Desk is a helpful resource for visitors and parishioners alike. Located just past the front doors on the right side of the narthex in the church, the Desk is staffed by volunteers before and after each Mass. Serving our parish in this ministry takes a warm smile (even behind a mask!) and a desire to help folks find the answers to their questions about Holy Trinity – from “Where’s the bathroom?” and “Do you have any tissues?” to “Can I register as a parishioner?” and “How do I get my child baptized?”. Email Marilyn to learn more and sign-up!

SUNDAY HOSPITALITY

Allie Buchanan – mrsrlb76@hotmail.com

Volunteers are needed to keep Coffee & Donuts running! Help is especially needed for our setup and cleanup shifts. To learn more about this tasty ministry and how you can help, email Allie Buchanan or go online to h-t.org/coffee-donuts.

PARISH EVENTS & COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEWCOMERS WELCOME

Rocio Deatherage – 503.642.4296 – rjjalapeno@comcast.net

We are delighted to announce the restart/return of our quarterly Newcomers Welcome gatherings! Whether you joined the parish last week, three months ago, or even a year ago, we would love to have you join us. It's a great opportunity to meet fellow parishioners and our pastor, and learn a bit more about the community. You'll also have the option to take a short tour of the campus! Refreshments are provided, reservations are not necessary, and children are always welcome.

Mark your calendars and plan on joining us down in the Fireside Room at 12:15pm, after our 11:15am Mass concludes, on Sunday, March 13th. We look forward to meeting you!
